

JARRED DUNN, Senior Piano

Jarred Dunn (Yamaha Artist) won first prize and concerto award at the 7th Lithuanian Chopin International Competition, was a prize-winner at the 1st Hoffman International Competition, and won prizes in piano and chamber music at the Vitti, Verona, and Rome International Competitions. Praised as “a piano sound-colour magician” (Muzikos Barai) and “evocative and mystical” (NYC Classical Music), he has been heard on CBC/Radio-Canada, Classical 96.3FM, WWFM, WQXR, Belarusian First, and Madison Radio/TV, and has performed with orchestras around the world. Jarred’s albums include Chopin and Debussy and Brahms in Solitude.

Mr. Dunn plays recitals often, including performances at Yamaha Performance Centre, Isabel Bader Centre, New York International Festival, Warsaw NIFC, NOSPR Katowice, Dvorana Hall (Bratislava), Klavierhaus Göttingen, Vilnius Town Hall, Franz Liszt Hall, etc. His Chopin playing is recognized for its “elegance and noble sensitivity, passion - without being pathetic - beautiful piano and powerful forte, melodious cantilena, broad phrasing and very rich, nuanced range of sounds” (Warsaw Arts Review). As a chamber musician he collaborates with Ātma Quartet and Brahms Summer Festival (Pörtlach).

Jarred judges in competitions and in 2022 he hosted Competition Studio TV at the 12th International Paderewski Piano Competition. He studied at the Bydgoszcz Academy of Music after graduating with distinction from Karol Szymanowski Academy of Music. He took Professional Studies at The Juilliard School with Jacob Lateiner and Yoheved Kaplinsky. He continued his studies with Dorothy Taubman, Andrei Gavrillov, Robert Levin, Andrzej Jasiński, and Maria João-Pires.
