

ADJUDICATOR

Dr. Stanley Fisher, Woodwinds

Dr. Fisher, a Canadian clarinetist, has been heard frequently on CBC Radio and TV. In addition, he has taught all the woodwinds and percussion methods, as well as various ensembles at Acadia University for 38 years where he was awarded Professor Emeritus. He is now retired and this marks the 6th time he has adjudicated at the Nova Scotia Kiwanis Music Festival. He has adjudicated all across Canada, local festivals, Provincial and National levels, Canadian Music Competition and Quebec Conservatories.

Dr. Fisher has given many masterclasses at leading Canadian and International institutions. He conducts full orchestras and has worked with many fine string quartets. Dr. Fisher is a Yamaha performing artist and conducts clinics for this corporation at the National Musicfest and at numerous locations across North America. He has released two CDs to date, one as a performer and one as a conductor.
