Please refer to the section “READ ME FIRST” for complete registration information.

NEW for 2025: EARLIER REGISTRATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2024 11:59 pm - last day to register without a late fee.

REMEMBER: To be considered for recommendation to the 2025 Provincial Music Festival, students entering classes shall meet the requirements of the Instrumental Ensemble Classes in the 2025 FCMF syllabus: <https://fcmf.org/en/>.

Please note:

Please use the class number when registering - in other words, not B-100, B-200 etc., but 7137, 7138, etc.

ALSO - Please do not put more than one Band on a single entry form!

The festival will provide a bass drum/stand, three timpani, and sixty music stands. Additional percussion equipment/stands must be supplied by the participating band. Additional Information will be provided prior to the Festival.

In all band classes, evaluation will be by Gold (90-100); Silver (85-89); and Bronze (79-84) Standard.

Your choice of material determines the level you enter. Bands must perform one selection from the list of Test Pieces for the level they enter, plus one Own Selection. Music for each class is based on the following assumed criteria and should be used as a guide when making a class selection.

B-100 (2 yrs. study)	Basic rhythms, restricted ranges, underdeveloped technique, homophonic texture, uniformity of rhythms, ample doubling, much full- and half-tutti scoring.
B-200 (3 yrs. study)	Intermediate rhythms, some syncopation, duplet and triplet rhythms, expanded ranges, reasonably fluent technique, changing meters (4-3-2, etc.), some crosscuing.
B-300	Challenging rhythms, free use of syncopation, free use of section and solo scoring, independence of parts, more diverse instrumentation, more extended ranges and technique.
B-400	Challenging rhythms, free use of syncopation, changing meters, asymmetrical meters, extended ranges for all instruments, very fluent technique, free use of solo writing, diverse instrumentation-especially woodwinds and percussion.
B-500/600	Very challenging rhythms (including polyrhythms), changing meters, asymmetrical rhythms, non-metrical notation, extreme ranges for all instruments, extremely fluent technique, free use of solo writing, diverse instrumentation, especially woodwinds and percussion.

Test Pieces within a given category will vary in degree of difficulty. With this system, conductors are able to enter the class which is most suitable to their band’s performance level. For example, if a conductor is establishing a new program, or rebuilding an existing program in a high school, it is not necessary to enter a B-400 class simply because the participant is a high school band. If participation in a lower-level class is a more reasonable goal, then that is the class that should be entered. Similarly, an advanced band may be entered in a higher-level class than their experience may suggest.

1. Bands will be permitted warm-up and tuning time on the stage immediately prior to their performance. This is not to exceed seven minutes.
2. In bands where instrumentation within sections is incomplete, entry in smaller ensemble classes is advisable.
3. A band may enter at one level only (i.e., the same band/ensemble may NOT enter one class at the 100 level and one class at the 200 level. However, participation at the Open level may be added to an entry at any level.
4. The time limit in all band classes is not to exceed twenty minutes.
5. All bands are subject to the conditions regarding groups found in the General Rules.
